Re: Women Are Losing Their Children To Corrupt Custody Proceedings

Among the dark secrets of Ct. communities is the fact that numerous women who gave up their careers to raise children find themselves at the mercy of Juvenile, Dependency and Family Courts who pay “Cash for Kids”. Protective mothers who have no wealth independent of their husband's are losing children via the connected network of “Predator Professionals” and “Parenting Police”.

The shock, shame and humiliation of finding themselves in the position of false accusations, mental health evaluation/assassination has created a mass of motherless children and children broken by the overwhelming authority of courts, making wrongful, damaging, custody transfers. This community of immobilized victims has no voice, is bereft of credibility and has proven incapable of rising up to their own defense.

Judicial oversight, complaints to Bar Associations, to the legislature has proven ineffective and the Ct. culture of corruption is worsening and becoming increasingly incestuous.

The FCVFC is seeking to appeal to Community Organizations of conscience and to activist citizens to become aware, alert, informed and to act.
